

...and what DO we do when we get together?
We light lamps, of course! Photos from the set up of the presentation at Carnegie Museum of Art, Pittsburgh, PA at the opening of the "LIGHT!" exhibition, April 7, 2001.

Paul and Jane Rausch, Dan Mattausch (lead presenter, in white shirt) and Dan Sohn setting the stage.

(Paul, Dan, Fil and Fred lit lamps, whilst Dan did the talking!)

We viewed this as a sort of practice session for the "Grand Illumination" at Paducah in August, 2002 where he had almost twice as many lamps lit. And no, that wondrous Sinumbra chandelier didn't make it to Paducah, but we ALL got to talk there!
