

SF Bk 1 English letter 12 – transcribed : (by Brian Falk)

March 8th (189)3

Mr Clay Webb

Croydon

Dear Sir,

We herewith accept your offer to purchase from you all rights in your invention in connection with an improved extinguisher for Central Air Draught Lamps as per your provisional specifications No. 22514 dated 8th December 1892 & also your additional invention of an automatic arrangement in conjunction with the aforesaid extinguisher for the total sum of One Hundred Guineas ($105) payable £20.- cash down & the Balance of £85.- latest by April 1st. This Sum (is) to be final & to include all rights for foreign Patents. It is understood between us that you will give us the benefit free of charge of any further improvements which you may invent in connection with the above or any other extinguisher For Central Air Draught Lamps. It is further agreed that you will sign any legal document which may be required to carry out the foregoing arrangements and that you will hand over to us or to our Agents all papers connected with the said Patents.

We remain

Yours faithfully

Falk, Stadelmann & Co. Ltd.

S Falk Managing Director

(See Index for letter Book 1: p180 20 Nov 1894 to realise why SF was being careful)